The revenue officers are still after ti New York brokers. The decision of the ommissioner in reference to the liabili ities of brokers to be taxed as bankers has been appealed from, and the matter may drag along for some time to come, As the Government expects to make some thing over $8,000,000 per year out of it, we me there can be no doubt of the r sult. The Commissioner of Luternal Rev enue, in defining the law, says that bro kers who receive stocks for sale, or adwance money upon those they purchase are bankers in the sense of the excise law and are subject to the tax of one twenty fourth of one per cent. on the capital used The wording of the law seems to warran this conclusion of the Commissioner, But the affice of Internal Revenue now claim that all bankers shall pay, not only the "special" or license tax, the percentage stamp tax upon all sales of stocks, and that upon the capital they own and use, but that they shall pay this percentage tax, as upon capital, on all the money en ployed by them, whether their own or not, in carrying their customers' stocks A broker possessing a capital of ten thousand dollars, and with deposits in " mar gins " from customers of ninety thousand more, will sometimes borrow from banks or bankers nine hundred thousand doltars, to "carry" stocks for his custom ers, depositing the stocks as security. I has always been supposed by husines men and by the officers of Internal Revenue, that such a broker is liable to the "capital tax," as a banker, upon the ten thousand dollars of his own money constantly employed in his business, and not apon the million of dollars gecidentally and temporarily so employed. Bankers have always been lenders of money; "capital used in banking" is money kept for lending; but on principle of law or common sense the money owned by one snan and lent to another can be called "capital used in banking" in the hands $1 20 to $1 2234c. SPECIAL NOTICES.

Almost every day we hear many persons and that they are not fit to so anything, etc. Many is the day that we have fell so ourselves, and in fact have gone to be land imagined ourselves sick, but for the life of uscould not tell what was the matter. One day while thus complaining, a friend said to us,
"Why don't you try PLANTATION BUTTERS?
They are really a good thing and will make you feel like a new man." Upon his recommendation we purchased a bottle, and took them according to the directions. They seemed to go right to the spot, and gave us immediate relief. Every since we have taken every opportunity to recommend them. Magnotta Water.
